Memorial Service | יזכר

We are grateful to share this moment of reflection and remembrance together as a community.

With this four-times annual service of remembrance, we call to mind those who have touched our lives and whose memories continue to influence us even after they have gone the way of all the earth. We are grateful for the gift of their lives, and strive to honor their memories in the way we live our own.

We pause, and allow melody to transport us to a place of connection knowing that the love we have shared is far stronger than death.

We remember those we love, and we pray that we may live our lives today and always so that their names will continue to be an inspiration to us, and ours one of pride to them.

May the memories of all we remember be for a blessing.

Rabbi Carie Carter

Cantor Judy Ribnick

Each of Us Has a Name

By Zelda (1914-1984)

Each of us has a name
Given by the Source of Life
And given by our parents.

Each of us has a name
Given us by our stature and our smile
And given by what we wear.

Each of us has a name
Given us by the mountains
And given by our walls.

Each of us has a name
Given by the stars
And given by our neighbors.

Each of us has a name
Given by our sins
And given by our longings.

Each of us has a name
Given by our enemies
And given by our love.

Each of us has a name
Given by our celebrations
And given by our work.

Each of us has a name
Given by the seasons
And given by our blindness.

Each of us has a name
Given by the sea
And given by our death.

Limnot Yameinu

-From Psalm 90, Melody by Rabbi Yitzhak Husbands Hankin

לְמִנּוֹת יָמֵינוּ כֵּן הוֹדַע וְנִבִּיא לְבָב חֲכָמָה

Lim-not ya-mei-nu ken ho-da, v'na-vi l'av choch-ma

Teach us to treasure each day.
That we may open our hearts to your wisdom.
Oh, teach us to treasure each day.

They Are Falling All Around Me

-Adapted from Bernice Johnson Reagon

They are falling all around me. (X4)
The strongest leaves of my tree.

Every paper brings the news that (X3)
The teachers of my sound are moving on.

Death it comes and rests so heavy (X3)
Your face I'll never see,
Never see you any more.

But you're not really going to leave me.
You're not really going to leave me. (X2)
It is your path I walk/It is your song I sing
It is your load I take on/It is your air I breathe
It's the record you set that makes me go on.
It's your strength that helps me stand
You're not really going to leave me.

I will try to sing my song right. (X3)
Be sure to let me hear from you.

Zichronam Livracha

Zich-ro-no livracha
Zich-ro-nam livracha
Zich-ro-nah livracha

We are blessed remembering you.

Kohelet (Ecclesiastes) Chapter 3

To every thing there is a season, and a time for every purpose under the heaven.

A time to be born, and a time to die.

A time to plant, and a time to harvest that which is planted.

A time to kill, and a time to heal.

A time to break down and a time to build up.

A time to weep, and a time to laugh.

A time to mourn, and a time to dance.

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones
Together.

A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing.

A time to get, and a time to lose.

A time to keep, and a time to cast away.

A time to rend, and a time to sew.

A time to keep silence, and a time to speak.

A time to love, and a time to hate.

A time of war, and a time of peace.

Separation

By W. S. Merwin

Your absence has gone through me

Like thread through a needle.

Everything I do is stitched with its color.

Mourner's Kaddish for Everyday

By Debra Cash

Build me up of memory

loving and angry, tender and honest.

Let my loss build me a heart of wisdom,
compassion for the world's many losses

Each hour is mortal

and each hour is eternal and each hour is our testament.

May I create worthy memories

all the days of my life.

Psalm 23

A Psalm of David: Adonai is my shepherd. I shall not want.
God gives me repose in green meadows.

God leads me beside the still waters to revive my spirit.

God guides me on the right path, for that is God's nature.

Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death,

I fear no harm, for You are with me.

You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes.

You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion all the days of my life.

And I will dwell in the House of Adonai forever.

When All That's Left Is Love

by Rabbi Allen S. Maller

When I die
If you need to weep
Cry for someone
Walking the street beside you.
You can love me most by letting Hands touch hands, and
Souls touch souls.
You can love me most by
Sharing your Simchas [goodness] and Multiplying your Mitzvot [acts of kindness].
You can love me most by
Letting me live in your eyes
And not on your mind.
And when you say
Kaddish for me
Remember what our Torah teaches,
Love doesn't die
People do.
So when all that's left of me is love
Give me away.

*Many Gregorian dates were derived from Hebrew calendar dates, so they may be off by a day from secular records, depending on the time of day the individual passed away. For leap years, if Adar I or II was not specified, we assumed an Adar I date. Note that couples who are listing names may be listed together alphabetically by one or the other of the couple's names, or in a few cases, listed separately. The Yizkor Book Coordinator has tried to be as accurate as possible, but deeply apologizes for any errors.

The PSJC Community holds in our hearts and our memories the PSJC members who have passed away over the years. So many of those people made enormous contributions of time, creativity and energy to our shul. Whether it was through serving on the PSJC Board, on committees, fundraising, donating to the Shabbat scotch fund, leading services, making shidduchs, providing sweat equity, providing financial support, or more generally supporting and caring for one another, our lives and our community are greatly diminished by their deaths.

The PSJC Community remembers with love and immense sadness those who died as a result of the terror attacks in Israel on Tishrei 22, 5784/October 7, 2023, and all who have died as a result of the devastating war that has followed. We also mourn those lost as a result of the Corona virus pandemic, as well as victims of racially and ethnically motivated violence, including those gunned down at the Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh on the 18th of Cheshvan 5779/October 27, 2018, and all the victims of anti-Semitism, gun violence and terror. We continue to hold in our hearts those who perished on the 12th of Elul 5771/September 11, 2001, attack on the World Trade Center that took place right before the High Holy Days, and so poignantly comes to mind every year at this season. We also mourn the death of victims of violence in Ukraine, along with the many individuals and communities around the world that have been devastated by wars and the impact of climate change.

May these be the last deaths from hate, violence and neglect in our world.

יש כוכבים

יש כוכבים

שְׁאוֹרֵם מִגֵּיעַ אֶרְצָה רַק כְּאֶשֶׁר הֵם עֲצָמָם אָבְדוּ וְאִינָם

יש אֲנָשִׁים

שֶׁזִּיו זְכָרָם מֵאִיר כְּאֶשֶׁר הֵם עֲצָמָם אִינָם יוֹתֵר בְּתוֹכֵנוּ

אֲוֵרוֹת אֵלֶּה

הַמְּבַהֲקִים בְּחֹשֶׁכֶת הַלַּיְלָה – הֵם שְׂמֵרָאִים לְאָדָם אֶת
אֲוֵרוֹת הַדֶּרֶךְ.

There are Stars

There are stars
whose light reaches the earth only after they themselves have disintegrated and are no more.

And there are people whose scintillating memory lights the world after they have passed from it.

These lights –
which shine in the darkest night – are those which illumine for us the path.
