We are grateful to share this moment of reflection and remembrance together as a community.

With this four-times annual service of remembrance, we call to mind those who have touched our lives and whose memories continue to influence us even after they have gone the way of all the earth. We are grateful for the gift of their lives, and strive to honor their memories in the way we live our own.

We pause, and allow melody to transport us to a place of connection knowing that the love we have shared is far stronger than death.

We remember those we love, and we pray that we may live our lives today and always so that their names will continue to be an inspiration to us, and ours one of pride to them.

May the memories of all we remember be for a blessing.

Each of Us Has a Name
By Zelda (1914-1984)

Each of us has a name
Given by the Source of Life
And given by our parents.

Each of us has a name
Given us by our stature and our smile
And given by what we wear.

Each of us has a name
Given us by the mountains
And given by our walls.

Each of us has a name
Given by the stars
And given by our neighbors.

Each of us has a name
Given by our sins
And given by our longings.

Each of us has a name
Given by our enemies
And given by our love.

Each of us has a name
Given by our celebrations
And given by our work.

Each of us has a name
Given by the seasons
And given by our blindness.

Each of us has a name
Given by the sea
And given by our death.
Limnot Yameinu
-From Psalm 90, Melody by Rabbi Yitzhak Husbands Hankin

לִמְנוֹת יָמֵינוּ כֵּן הוֹדַע וְנָבִיא לְבַב חָכְמָה

Lim-not ya-mei-nu ken ho-da, v’na-vi l’vav choch-ma

Teach us to treasure each day.
That we may open our hearts to your wisdom.
Oh, teach us to treasure each day.

They Are Falling All Around Me
-Adapted from Bernice Johnson Reagon

They are falling all around me. (X4)
The strongest leaves of my tree.

Every paper brings the news that (X3)
The teachers of my sound are moving on.

Death it comes and rests so heavy (X3)
Your face I’ll never see,
Never see you any more.

But you’re not really going to leave me.
You’re not really going to leave me. (X2)
It is your path I walk/It is your song I sing
It is your load I take on/It is your air I breathe
It’s the record you set that makes me go on.
It’s your strength that helps me stand
You’re not really going to leave me.

I will try to sing my song right. (X3)
Be sure to let me hear from you.

Broken Hearted
(Hebrew and English text, p. 293 Machzor Lev Shalem; Words: Psalm 147:3, 4; Zelda)

Healer of the broken-hearted
Binder of their wounds
Counter of the uncountable stars
You know who we are
Exalted, compassionate God.

Kohelet (Ecclesiastes) Chapter 3
To every thing there is a season, and a time for every purpose under the heaven.
A time to be born, and a time to die.
A time to plant, and a time to harvest that which is planted.
A time to kill, and a time to heal.
A time to break down and a time to build up.
A time to weep, and a time to laugh.
A time to mourn, and a time to dance.
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together.
A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing.
A time to get, and a time to lose.
A time to keep, and a time to cast away.
A time to rend, and a time to sew.
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak.
A time to love, and a time to hate.
A time of war, and a time of peace.
Psalm 23
A Psalm of David: Adonai is my shepherd. I shall not want. God gives me repose in green meadows. God leads me beside the still waters to revive my spirit. God guides me on the right path, for that is God’s nature. Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no harm, for You are with me. You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion all the days of my life. And I will dwell in the House of Adonai forever.

In most cases Gregorian dates were derived from the Hebrew calendar dates, so they may be off by a day or so from secular records, depending on the time of day that the individual passed away. For leap years, if Adar I or II was not specified, we assumed an Adar I date.

The PSJC Community adds with love the names of members who have passed away, including Elaine Fried Erik Hollander, Marlene Schwartz, Carol Strumph, Cecilia Urban, and Laura Warshawsky.
The PSJC Community remembers with love those who died as a result of the Corona virus pandemic. We also mourn the victims of racially motivated violence, along with those gunned down at the Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh on 18 Cheshvan 5779/October 27, 2018, and all the victims of anti-Semitism, gun violence and terror. We hold in our hearts those who perished on 12 Elul 5771/September 11, 2001 as we reach the 20th anniversary of that tragic day. May these be the last deaths from hate and violence in our world.
